

David Ng

Coaching establishes goals and actions that are authentic to the individual. Through authentic goals and actions, potential can be realized and challenged.

“With ever increasing complexity in the business environment through increased availability of data, executives are challenged to learn more, faster and deeper. I believe coaching has a role to fill in providing a process and resource that allows coachees to develop, corroborate and be challenged in a safe environment. My corporate experience adds a professional financial and strategic context to coaching sessions to ensure commercial relevance.”

Experience

David Ng brings to an organization 25+ years of broad industry and international exposure, gained through working in challenging start-ups and respected MNCs as an executive in leadership roles. His experience has covered global and regional positions, based out of Singapore, Hong Kong, London and Sydney, with a focus on Emerging Markets. His interest is in holistic performance management and brings a combination of coaching and consulting to his work with forward-thinking companies, executives and entrepreneurs. As a Business Consultant and Executive Coach, David enjoys working hand-in-hand with growth orientated companies, start-ups and executives to synthesize their values, capabilities, positioning and priorities to improve focus, productivity and impact. A Coaching relationship with David is targeted at supplementing the talent management support given to High Performing Executives at forward-thinking companies and Entrepreneurs who wish to fulfill their potential.

His corporate career has covered various industries as a Director and CFO at a regional and global level including Pharmaceuticals, Media, Consumer Products, Intellectual Property, Investment Banking and the Accounting profession. He has worked in senior roles at ASLAN Pharmaceuticals, Invida, Viacom, Mediaedge:cia, Bankers Trust and Andersen in addition to various start-ups.

With David's financial and corporate background, his coaching services are differentiated by being able to access a career that has spanned geographies, industries, start-ups and MNCs, with a strong financial and commercial context.

Professional Expertise

- One on One Executive Coaching for Senior Executives and High Potentials at MNCs and start-ups
- Mentoring for CFO and Corporate Finance Executives
- Board Advice – Governance / Strategy / Shareholder liaison / Investigations
- Facilitation of Strategic Offsites
- Post Merger Business Transformations

Qualifications

He holds an MBA and Master of Economics (Accounting) from Macquarie University, a Bachelor of Economics from the University of Sydney and is an Associate of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (ACA). He is also a graduate of CoachU, a Practising Management Consultant (PMC with the Singapore Business Advisors & Consultants Council) and an IAAF Level 1 athletics coach.

Client Organisations

Standard Chartered Bank PLC
ANZ Bank Limited
Commerzbank AG
Franklin Templeton
Invida Holdings
ASLAN Pharma
Einsights Inc
ED&F Man
Start ups

Contact

Mobile
+65 81277386

E-Mail
singapore@praesta.com